

VACANCY

FREELANCE AUDIO VISUAL JOURNALIST X 2

HEAD OFFICE,

Namibia Press Agency (NAMPA) is looking for an Audio Visual Journalist reporting Editor Audio-Visual Services

Producing and editing audio-visual news and feature items, coming up with own story ideas and writing stories

Key Responsibilities:

- Up to date news liaising produced per month by liaising with wide network of contacts.
- information for each story analyzed, interpreted and the accuracy thereof reviewed
- pertinent matters for stories communicated regularly both verbally and in writing to the supervisor
- quality videos and audio recordings taken and edited
- news clips every month for local, national, regional and international media produced;
- assignment given (even under sometimes difficult circumstances) completed by deadline
- research to get background information on stories conducted regularly
- photographs with captions to the newsroom uploaded daily
- video clips reviewed by other reporters, facts checked and suggestions for changes offered and accepted regularly
- company assets such as camera and video equipment safeguarded all the time

Education and Experience Requirements:

- Diploma or B-Degree in Journalism/Media Studies.
- Minimum of three (3) years' experience as a Journalist.
- Satisfactory understanding and use of ICT.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.

Closing Date of Application: 19 May 2023

Interested candidates should forward their comprehensive CV with certified copies to recruitment@nampa.org

Or hand deliver at Corner of Keller and Eugene Marais Street, (opposite National library/achieve), Windhoek

Only short-listed candidates will be contacted. No documents will be returned.